

Subject Vincent Stuart Terry, aka Christopher Cantrell, fraudulently obtained victim's identities to secure DIRECTV service. Terry obtained the victim's name and social security number from military records while serving in the U.S. Army in Germany in 1993. Terry archived this information until 2006, when he remembered he had the information. In 2006 and 2007, the list of names was used to open DIRECTV accounts using the victims' names and social security number with Terry's own address.

Terry was charged with the fraudulent use of the name and social security number (felony) and Theft (felony) of the Direct TV services. A warrant was obtained on October 1, 2008, and he was arrested the same day. He is being held in the Alachua County department of the jail on $25,000.00 bond.
